

The CSUSB Modern China Lecture Series, The College of Business and Public Administration, CSUSB History Club, History Department, and Phi Alpha Theta Present

Confucian and Buddhist Wisdom for Daily Life
A Lecture and Discussion with John Yin
Free and open to the public
Wednesday, May 20, 2015, 12 to 2pm, PL-4005

Please join us in Pfau Library for a lecture with Mr. John Yin exploring the nature of wisdom and how it can be acquired from the ancient traditions of Confucianism and Buddhism. Mr. Yin will explain how we can nurture wisdom and capability in our lives today, using the teachings of these philosophical traditions.

John Yin has rich experience and expertise in the diverse worlds of philosophy, engineering, and business administration. He has published a Chinese commentary on the Analects of Confucius and is establishing a charity organization to promote Buddhist culture in the US, "Buddhist Puji Culture Foundation."

Thanks to Iwona Contreras in Pfau Library, and Tim Pytell and Pamela Crosson in the History Department. For more information about this event contact Frank Lin at flin@csusb.edu or Jeremy Murray at jmurray@csusb.edu.