Stay connected!!

Census

January 27 is our Winter Quarter "Census." What that means is that this is the last day for you to drop a class without the need for approval or exceptional circumstances. If you are uncertain about continuing with a class, talk with us and make your decision before you need documented "exceptional" circumstances.

Evaluate our Website

The MPA/PA website has changed and will continue to be updated with different graphics and navigation. Please contact Biany Huerta Ramirez with feedback and suggestions. We want to make this as useful as possible and your feedback will help.

Submit Your FAFSA and Scholarship Applications NOW

It is time to fill out and submit your annual FAFSA and Scholarship applications. There is money available to both undergraduate and graduate students, but you have to have completed these forms to access. Please review their website carefully <https://www.csusb.edu/financial-aid>

Send your Public Administration Employment status to me for publication in future Digests

The Public Administration Department at California State University, San Bernardino provides student centered learning that prepares students to become effective public service and nonprofit professionals and community members. We serve students and communities, primarily from the Inland Empire region of Southern California and surrounding areas through enhancing the knowledge of public affairs, administration, and policy of a highly diverse population. We are committed to teaching ethical behavior, democratic values and the practical complexities of governance. To sustain and constantly enrich our educational offerings, we support faculty efforts to remain current in their fields and to develop and disseminate knowledge of public administration and pedagogy through applied and basic research.
