IMPORTANT DATES

Registration for Winter Quarter Begins

Winter quarter registration begins this week. Register for your classes promptly. And please tell your fellow students. Since you are reading this, I know you are paying attention. But your fellow students may not be!! So tell them to be sure to register (and to read the PA Digest!!!)

* MPA students please see the semester conversion page for your planning. Contact Dr. Anderson with any questions.

* Undergraduate students, please contact Dr. McWeeney if you have any questions.

* If you plan to take a Cybersecurity class- contact Marisol.

Zoom with the Chair - November 9

Join me this Saturday, November 9 at 9 am. My topic for the day will be diversity, identity, cross cultural communications, assumptions of normality, assimilation and cultural frames..... all in one hour. :)

Join me Saturday at <https://csusb.zoom.us/j/661420140>

Next month we will welcome Dr. Van Wart to talk a bit about Ethics in Public Administration. In following months other faculty will join us to share with us.

Graduate Student Assistants

We often need graduate student assistants to work approximately ten hours a week either with a faculty member or with the department. If you have an interest, please contact Toni Ditty with your resume and interest.

VOTE - It is your Responsibility

All citizens have a responsibility to vote. Don't neglect that. It is important to be a regular and informed voter. If you are qualified and not registered to vote- You can find Voter Registration Information in California here. And Presidential elections are not the only elections. Please vote in your local elections. See what elections are upcoming where you live

The League of California Cities City Managers' Department will provide a select number of scholarships to Masters of Public Administration graduate students in California who wish to attend the City Managers' Department Meeting in Napa from February 5-7, 2020. The scholarship (value $1,000) will cover the cost of 3-day conference registration, as well as up to two nights of hotel lodging (room and tax only). Session information can be found at <http://www.cacities.org/Education-Events/City-Managers-Department-Meeting>.

Those interested in applying should complete their application and essay online at www.cacities.org/managersscholarship before 5p.m. on Wednesday, December 4.

Capital Fellows Programs

Capital Fellows are nationally recognized public policy fellowships offering unique experiences in policy-making and development in each branch of California state government. Fellows work for 10-11 months as full-time, paid staff members in the State Assembly, State Senate, Executive Branch or the Judiciary. The fellowships are administered by the Center for California Studies at California State University, Sacramento, and are an outstanding opportunity for college graduates to engage in public service and prepare for future careers. For more information go to

The Public Administration Department at California State University, San Bernardino provides student centered learning that prepares students to become effective public service and nonprofit professionals and community members. We serve students and communities, primarily from the Inland Empire region of Southern California and surrounding areas through enhancing the knowledge of public affairs, administration, and policy of a highly diverse population. We are committed to teaching ethical behavior, democratic values and the practical complexities of governance. To sustain and constantly enrich our educational offerings, we support faculty efforts to remain current in their fields and to develop and disseminate knowledge of public administration and pedagogy through applied and basic research.
