UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CAPTAIN JOANNE M. WHITLOCK

Captain Joanne M. Whitlock is the Operations Officer and an Assistant Professor of Aerospace Studies at the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC), Detachment 002, California State University, San Bernardino. In this capacity, she is directly responsible for the training, education and development of officer candidates into Air Force commissioned officers through a comprehensive college program.

Captain Whitlock was born and raised in Manila Philippines and commissioned through Officer Training School in 2013 after serving as a Forensic Investigator in the civilian sector. Prior to her current assignment, Captain Whitlock was the Operations Officer for the 628th Logistics Readiness Squadron in Joint Base Charleston where she was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the most diverse squadron on base and assisted the Commander in managing the dynamic and varied mission requirements in support of Air Mobility Command's busiest installation and home of 41 C-17s. She has also served as the Chief of Mission Support for the AFCENT Air Warfare Center (AAWC), Al Dhafra Air Base, United Arab Emirates where she was aligned under the U.S. Embassy. Capt Whitlock has served in a variety of positions at base level and staff to include OIC, Flight Commander and two-time Executive Officer. In addition, Captain Whitlock was deployed to Niger, Africa where she served as the first ever Logistics Readiness Flight Commander at the 724 Expeditionary Air Base Squadron, the DoD's newest ISR air base and largest troop labor project in Air Force history.
