

WE DEFINE THE Future

PRESS RELEASE

8-16-24

Contact: Mike Singer

(760) 341-2883, ext. 78107

msinger@csusb.edu

Cal State San Bernardino accepting undergraduate applications for spring 2025

PALM DESERT, Calif. – Cal State San Bernardino, including its Palm Desert Campus, is now accepting undergraduate applications from first-time, upper-division transfer, and returning students for spring 2025.

For students who have missed the fall application window, this provides another opportunity to attend CSUSB. Applications will be accepted through Sept. 15.

Classes start in January and will fill up quickly, so students are encouraged to register early. Students can apply to any non-impacted major, psychology and criminal justice. However, nursing, kinesiology, allied health, and social work are still impacted and will not be accepting applications. To apply for spring 2025, visit the Cal State Apply webpage.

A variety of financial aid opportunities are available, and students who qualify can take advantage of a $1,000 grant for newly enrolled spring 2025 students.

Cal State San Bernardino has more than 70 traditional baccalaureate and master's degree programs, education credential and certificate programs, and a doctoral program, all housed within five academic colleges and the Palm Desert Campus:

College of Arts and Letters

Taught by award-winning faculty, the classes and programs in the College of Arts and Letters (CAL) help students find their voice while fostering their creativity, critical thinking skills and innovation. Students gain invaluable hands-on opportunities with CAL's state-of-the-art facilities, such as Coyote Radio, a glass-making area, and the new Performing Arts Center, set to open in the 2024-25 academic year. For more information, watch "CSUSB College of Arts and Letters helps students refine their voice."

Jack H. Brown College of Business and Public Administration

With a strong focus on practical experience, ethical leadership, and global perspectives, the faculty at Jack H. Brown College of Business and Public Administration provides students with the skills and knowledge needed to succeed in careers in business, government and nonprofit sectors. The college's MBA program, Cybersecurity Center and the School of Entrepreneurship have consistently received national and international recognition. For more information, watch "Jack H. Brown College among the best business schools in the nation."

James R. Watson and Judy Rodriguez Watson College of Education

The James R. Watson and Judy Rodriguez Watson College of Education is home to a teacher preparation program that includes different teaching credentials, master's programs, a doctoral program in educational leadership, and certificate programs — all of which are accredited in their respective areas. For those seeking a professional career in education, the college's doctorate in education program has been ranked among the best in the nation. For more information, watch "College of Education produces outstanding, innovative educators."

College of Natural Sciences

Consisting of 10 departments and the Murillo Family Observatory, the College of Natural Sciences is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life and health of the communities it serves. Students are prepared for science and health-related jobs in the public or private sector, a career in teaching, or graduate or professional education. In addition, students are provided cutting-edge technology and resources, research opportunities and mentorship from faculty who are experts in their fields. For more information, watch "College of Natural Sciences – Meeting the needs of the community, the nation and beyond."

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences

The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences is home to 14 academic departments and programs, covering a wide range of human issues. With a mix of traditional and innovative education, the college is dedicated to the growth and support of undergraduate and graduate education, research, public service and professional development. This year, CSUSB's master of social work program was ranked among the best schools in the nation by U.S. News & World

Report. For more information, watch “College of Social and Behavioral Sciences: Leading by learning.”

College of Extended and Global Education

The interdisciplinary College of Extended and Global Education (CEGE) fosters an interconnected campus by strategically partnering with university, community, educational, business and international partners. CEGE offers a diverse range of undergraduate and graduate degrees, professional development courses and certificates, and international education programs, enhancing access to academic programs and educational resources to audiences locally and worldwide. For more information, visit the CEGE’s programs webpage.

Cal State San Bernardino values flexibility and prioritizes student access. The university is committed to enhancing the student experience through a variety of programs, resources, services and hands-on learning opportunities. These offerings are designed to support students in achieving their educational, personal and professional goals. Additionally, CSUSB is dedicated to promoting diversity and maintaining academic excellence. With the addition of the spring 2025 applications, students are provided with another opportunity this academic year to define their future at CSUSB.

About the CSUSB Palm Desert Campus: The CSUSB Palm Desert Campus offers bachelor’s and master’s degrees, teaching credentials and certificates, and plays a vital role in educating the region’s growing population.

For more information about the CSUSB Palm Desert Campus, contact Mike Singer in the Office of Marketing and Communications at msinger@csusb.edu or (760) 341-2883, ext. 78107, or visit the PDC website at www.csusb.edu/pdc.