Additional Information

Personal Protective Equipment

The Office of Community Engagement offers PPE kits for faculty and students participating in community-based research. For more information, email Brian at bheister@csusb.edu.

OSR's Research and Creative Activities Database Form

Please consider highlighting your research efforts with the CSUSB campus community through OSR's Research and Creative Activities Database Form.

OSR's Research Matters Program

The Research Matters Program is designed to support CSUSB faculty as they navigate the Federal Work Study Program to hire eligible students as research assistants. The OSR will assist faculty in completing and submitting an advertisement for the open position, assist in recruiting and hiring work-study eligible research assistants, and assist faculty in completing monthly time sheets for their students. Faculty interested in participating in this program must submit a profile to the Research and Creative Activities Database. Information regarding the CSUSB Federal Work Study.
