

Concurrent Enrollment

A graduate student enrolled at the university may enroll concurrently for additional courses at another institution only with advance written approval from the graduate program coordinator and the Dean of Graduate Studies. Ordinarily, permission will not be granted when the unit load in the proposed combined program exceeds 12 semester units (16 quarter units). Please contact your program coordinator for additional information.