

MINI-GRANT AWARD 2025

The purpose of the Mini-Grant is to encourage faculty to engage in research, scholarship, and creative activity which will ultimately lead to their professional growth and to the enhancement of our students' educational experience.

This grant consist of "seed monies" which may be used for assigned time, student assistants, clericals, supplies, services, equipment, operating costs, and travel. Preference will be given to proposals not previously funded, but which show evidence of initial preparation. A proposed project shall not duplicate any other project already funded from any other source within the university during the same academic year.

Application Deadline: Monday, March 3rd, 2025 at 11:59pm
